

Empowering Gen Now: A Regional Conference on Engaging Young People Today

This conference will examine closely Listen, Teach, Send: A National Pastoral Framework for Ministries with Youth and Young Adults. Hosted by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in collaboration with the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, this conference aims to equip catechetical leaders, educators, parents, and Ministers with Youth and Young Adult Leaders with strategies to empower today's young disciples. Through engaging workshops, meaningful breakout discussions, and networking opportunities, we'll explore ways to listen to young people, teach with impact, and send them forth as confident leaders in their communities.

Be part of the movement. Let's inspire Gen Now!
